Multiple individuals are included in the governance of the Riley Purgatory Bluff Creek Watershed District. These include a board of managers, advisory committees, consultants, staff, and volunteers.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Five managers govern the watershed district. Four are appointed by the Hennepin County Commissioners and one by the Carver County Commissioners. Each serves a three-year term.

LEGAL
Aids in drafting legal documents and advises on matters of law.

ENGINEERING
Provides engineering expertise when required for projects and programs. Assists with permits.

ACCOUNTING
Processes and tracks financial accounts.

AUDITOR
Reviews and evaluates District financial statements.

PROJECTS MANAGER & PERMIT COORDINATOR
Manages the District’s permitting program, & projects to improve water resources.

DATA COLLECTION & FISHERIES COORDINATOR
Coordinates data collection and fisheries monitoring.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH COORDINATOR
Implements Education & Outreach plan, including the cost-share program.

WATER RESOURCE TECHNICIAN
Supports data collection and monitoring.

ADVISOR COMMITTEES

CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Provide feedback to board on decision making as representatives of citizen interests.

TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Provides feedback on technical aspects of programs, projects, and rules.

CONSULTANTS

LEGAL
Aids in drafting legal documents and advises on matters of law.

ENGINEERING
Provides engineering expertise when required for projects and programs. Assists with permits.

ACCOUNTING
Processes and tracks financial accounts.

AUDITOR
Reviews and evaluates District financial statements.

VOLUNTEERS, SERVICE LEARNERS & INTERNS
Increase District capacity through service, stewardship, and learning.